Iconic Winter Road Trips

to whet your travel appetite

You could spend your whole life exploring Canadian icons and hidden gems, but if there's 3 winter road trips to take in your lifetime, it's these ...

The Powder Trail

Calgary

Pick up in Calgary. The Powder Trail - it's your road to winter. Alberta and British Columbia are renowned for ski destinations with long runs and plentiful amounts of snow-especially powder. Consider a holiday to different ski resorts to experience the incredible terrain and white gold for yourself.

Winter Sea to Sky

Vancouver

Experience the awe-inspiring beauty of snow-capped mountains, towering in glory as they reach out to embrace the sparkling expanse of the sea. Transport yourself to a place where the silence of the forest is broken by crunching snow and the occasional cry of a bald eagle.

Ski Quebec
Montreal

When you travel in Québec you are embarking on a journey filled with action and peacefulness, ambience and beauty. This route is paced to be leisurely and restful. Many of the ski hills and activities are two to four hours from Montreal and the temperature is often around -10 C, perfect weather for skiing and outdoor activities.
